Relocating? Lease with a Right to Purchase

You're Relocating To A New City

And you have questions about where to live?????
Which neighborhood has the quickest commute?
Where are the good schools?
What community will offer the best quality of life?

This lease with a Right to Purchase is a great alternative to buying a home immediately for your relocation.

This program is very simple: you apply on the website, and upon approval, we help you find a home, in an approved community, that you may want to buy in the future. Our partner buys the home and rents it to you for up to five one-year lease terms. You get the opportunity to spend up to five years in the home and community without the commitment of a mortgage.

You take time to decide if it's the right place for you. If it is, you can buy the home at any time. If it's not, you can move out after any one-year lease term - you have no obligation to buy the home.

Our mission is to provide a new path to home ownership for those who may be thinking about thinking about buying a home but aren't quite ready.
